Goodwill to Host Third Annual 3-on-3 Basketball Tournament
Bringing together members of the community and law enforcement

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — Goodwill of Central & Southern Indiana announced today that it is hosting its third annual 3-on-3 basketball tournament, an event designed to join members of the community with law enforcement for an afternoon of friendly competition, camaraderie and fun.

“Bringing together members of the community with local law enforcement has always been important,” said Trelles Evans, director of re-entry and disability services at Goodwill of Central & Southern Indiana. “Relationship-building is critical to solving our common problems, and Goodwill is proud to be a partner in facilitating these efforts.”

Employees at Goodwill will team up with and against members of the Indianapolis Metropolitan Police Department, including parole, probation and home detention officers. The event will feature food trucks, ice cream trucks, music and other entertainment. Members of the community and our media friends are invited to join in the festivities:

Date: Friday, August 27

Time: 12-2 p.m.

Location: Goodwill Commercial Services, 413 N. Tremont Street, Indianapolis, 46222
