Brodie Sears Announced as New Vice President at Goodwill
Sears will lead Goodwill's retail, facilities and real estate division

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. – Goodwill of Central and Southern Indiana announces a new Vice President of Retail, Facilities and Real Estate, Brodie Sears. In this role, Sears is responsible for leading the organization's retail division, which includes over 70 stores and 2,800 employees, along with the facilities and real estate team.

Sears joined Goodwill in 2016 and previously served as senior director of retail operations.

"Brodie has served Goodwill as an innovative and effective leader in our retail division for many years and possesses a deep understanding of our shoppers, donors, employees and Goodwill mission," said Kent A. Kramer, president and CEO at Goodwill of Central and Southern Indiana.

Prior to Goodwill, Brodie worked in the construction industry, nonprofit leadership, ministry and supply chain management.

"In today's rapidly changing retail landscape, we believe that Brodie has the ability to help Goodwill continue to evolve and grow, which all helps to improve the lives of individuals and families across central and southern Indiana," said Kramer. "The revenue made from our retail stores goes right back into the communities we serve through employment, health and education services."

Brodie has a bachelor's degree from Taylor University and certifications in Real Estate and Six Sigma.
