Goodwill's Nurse-Family Partnership Promotes Jessica Harpenau
Experienced maternity nurse will supervise NFP's south team

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. – Goodwill of Central & Southern Indiana is pleased to announce that Jessica Harpenau has been promoted to supervisor of its Nurse-Family Partnership® (NFP) southern region team.

“Jessica has extensive experience over the last decade and a half in the labor, delivery, and maternity space. We are lucky to have the opportunity for her to lead our southern team using her impressive background,” said Betsy K. Delgado, senior vice president and chief mission & education officer of Goodwill of Central & Southern Indiana.

Harpenau worked in labor and delivery at Baptist Health Floyd Hospital from 2007-2017 and served as the prepared childbirth educator. She was also the RN lead in the outpatient clinic at Home of the Innocence in Louisville, Kentucky from 2017-2018. She joined NFP in 2018 and has shown her passion for the mission ever since.

“NFP’s mission requires that its team have all the skills, training, and experience to deliver vital services to our clients. Our leaders also need to have passion to go with it, and that is the special quality that Jessica brings,” Delgado added.

Harpenau has a bachelor’s degree in nursing from Indiana State University. She is also a certified lactation specialist. She and her husband have one daughter and two sons.
