Breeanna Bongayan Pea Promoted to Director of Talent Management

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. — Goodwill of Central & Southern Indiana recently announced that Breeanna Bongayan Pea, a longtime employee, has been promoted to the role of Director of Talent Management.

Bongayan started her Goodwill career as a Case Manager for its Commercial Services division in 2010. She was later promoted to Employee Development and Training Supervisor and led the Janitorial Training Program. In 2017, she was recruited by the Human Resources team as an HR Business Partner supporting the entire organization. Over the years, Bongayan has also raised her hand to lead efforts in Learning & Development and Talent Acquisition.

In her new role, Bongayan supports Goodwill's leadership by ensuring equitable experiences, strengthening inclusion acumen and promoting a culture of inclusivity and belonging that embraces the contributions of all employees. She is also passionate about the employee experience and acts as an internal consultant on various organizational issues, recommending appropriate interventions to optimize people, strategy, structure, process and culture.

"Bree has illustrated that she is adept at leading HR on a number of fronts, and I'm excited to see how she applies her extensive knowledge and skills to a critical area of the organization," said Lisa Allen, vice president and chief human resources officer at Goodwill of Central & Southern Indiana.

Bongayan earned a bachelor's degree in applied health science with a focus in human development and family studies from Indiana University in 2008.
