FROM DONATIONS TO DIPLOMAS: JOIN US AT GOODWILL UNBOXED '23 FOR A ONE-OF-A-KIND EXPERIENCE

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. – You're probably familiar with Goodwill's retail stores, but many people don't realize that Goodwill also operates 17 high schools in central and southern Indiana as well as a maternal-child health program in 61 Indiana counties. We're also one of the largest employers in the state of persons with disabilities and other barriers to employment, like a criminal history, limited education or access to basic needs like transportation and housing. When you donate to Goodwill, you're not only keeping millions of pounds of goods out of landfills, but you're also changing lives in your community.

UNBOXED '23 provides attendees with a unique opportunity to experience Goodwill – from the moment someone drops off a box of donations, to the sorting and selling of those donations, to the proceeds generated, which support a range of mission programs that address some of our state's most common barriers to employment, education and health care. Guests will be treated to food and drink from 20 different vendors, entertainment by DJ Gabby Love, a journey of Goodwill through the decades featuring a lounge singer, and photos with our special guest, the "Goodwill Guy!"

Watch: Check out last year's event.

What: See how your donations support an entire community.

When: Thursday, September 14, from 6-10 p.m.

Where: The AMP at 16 Tech, 1220 Waterway Blvd., Indianapolis

Credentialed members of the media receive complimentary access to UNBOXED '23. If you plan to join us, please RSVP to Jenny Kakasuleff at jennifer.kakasuleff@goodwillindy.org, or simply reply to this email. We hope to see you there!
